

Be Our GUEST

The Beacon February 3 & 4, 2018

Welcome to Shalimar UMC

We are so glad you've chosen to worship with us this week! Hearing assistance devices are available for the Sanctuary. Please see an usher to obtain these aids.

Enjoy fellowship, coffee, and snacks in the Family Life Center Gym between worship services.

Our Vision

Christ-centered, multigenerational, family and community relevant ministries through worship, discipleship, and mission.

Our Mission

REACH, TEACH, and SEND

We REACH out to our congregation, community, and the world to TEACH the word of God as provided in the Holy Scripture, and SEND our members and missionaries to be witnesses to God's grace and His promise of eternal life to us through the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

Worship Services

Break Free

Our Saturday evening service begins at 6:00 pm in the Family Life Center. This transformational service involves modern music, multimedia, and a style of preaching that is practical and participatory.

Traditions

At 8:00 and 11:00 am Sunday mornings in the Sanctuary we celebrate through the rich traditions of our faith such as hymns led by organ and piano, seasonal vestments, and traditional Methodist liturgy. Our Chancel Choir leads the 11:00 service.

Connect

At 9:30 Sunday mornings in the Sanctuary we engage in a four-fold service of gathering praise, service of the Word, Holy Communion with candle stations for prayer, and sending forth. The music is a blend of contemporary praise songs and upbeat hymns.

Freedom

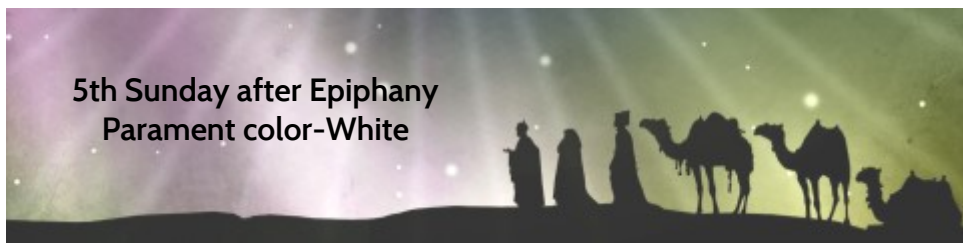

At 11:07 Sunday mornings in the Family Life Center Gym we worship through modern music, multimedia, and a teaching style message in a non-traditional atmosphere. We come to God as we are to experience the freedom of not having to stay that way.

Philip's Focus

Rising Tide

Have you ever noticed we have many "SHIPS" in the church? Our church is a harbor for D discipleSHIP, StewardSHIP, MemberSHIP, and FellowSHIP. The old saying is also true "A rising tide lifts all ships." Notice this Auburn fan said "Rising Tide" and not "Roll Tide." A rising tide does lift all boats. This is certainly true with SHIPS in the church.

DiscipleSHIP is the mission of the church. Our aim is to grow as disciples and to make disciples. We grow as disciples when we live and learn the teachings of Jesus. As we encourage others, we help others grow as disciples. DiscipleSHIP is a daily endeavor. We seek to become more like Jesus every day. As the original twelve disciples followed Jesus, we too seek to follow Jesus.

StewardSHIP is our journey of giving back to God through the local church. StewardSHIP is a response to our MemberSHIP vows of PRAYERS, PRESENCE, GIFTS, SERVICE, and WITNESS. These big five commitments remind us we are to PRAY for others and the ministry of the church. We commit to being PRESENT in the church unless we are prevented. God has given us GIFTS to use for his glory. We are to give financially in response to all the blessings God has given to us and tithing is the priority of giving God the first ten percent of our income. Our giving also includes our time and particular gifts we have to use in the Body of Christ. All of our gifts used together raises the level of ministry through our congregation. We are all to SERVE. Jesus said, "Whoever wants to be great among you must be your servant." (Matthew 20:26) All of us are called to serve. Finally, when we join the church we also affirm the vow of WITNESS for Jesus Christ. We are to let our light shine for Jesus in both words and deeds. When we all witness, Shalimar UMC becomes what this newsletter describes as a BEACON - a light for Jesus!

One other Ship of the Church is FellowSHIP. In the early church, no not 8:00 am service, but in the original Church we read they did so much together in a spirit of Koinonia. Koinonia is a Greek word describing a deeper level of fellowSHIP where you share the journey of following Christ together. In particular they broke bread together. Something special happens when we gather in the name of Jesus Christ and we eat together. Those scones and coffee at fellowship time does more than just appease a hunger. The scones are symbolic of our need to build relationSHIPS together. Our building relationSHIPS in the church really does matter.

One of the ways God moves through a church is through building our fellowSHIP with each other. One of the hopes of our short sermon series on Be Our Guest is that we will build fellowSHIP together and be more intentional about welcoming all into the Church at Shalimar UMC! This building a loving FellowSHIP is huge in building up the church.

The Church is special people in a common space that know the value of Ships in the Church. Let us raise our level of Discipleship, Stewardship, and Fellowship into the New Year 2018. If we do this together, we will raise all of these boats like a rising tide! Let's raise the level of our commitment together!

Shalom,
Philip

Worship: A Weekly Event or a Daily Lifestyle?

“So here’s what I want you to do, God helping you: Take your everyday ordinary life—your sleeping, eating, going to work, and walking-around life—and place it before God as an offering.” Romans 12:1 (MSG)

In the time I have been here, I have been very impressed with the worship here at Shalimar UMC. This is a praying, praising, singing, Bible-reading congregation! We praise God with musical instruments (Psalm 150), preaching the Word, giving offerings, the sacraments as well as outreach, mission, and evangelism. We also praise God when we offer testimony to others of what God has done for us. But let’s be honest, sometimes when the worship is over, we go back to our everyday lives as if there is little connection between our careers and our faith. My question for you this week: Is worship what you do one day a week or do you worship God in many ways throughout the week?

I will always remember the motto of one of the youth leaders I once worked with: “Let your work be worship and let your worship be work.” He taught us that everything we do can be an offering to God. Seen in this way, worship is not an event to cap off the week, but a continual way of life.

In the second century AD, before Christianity was an official religion, many Roman officials preferred to hire Christians for important tasks, such as handling money or dealing in confidential matters. They knew that Christians were honest and trustworthy. Christians knew that everything they did reflected on their Lord, Jesus Christ, as much as on themselves or their family. The work they did gave glory to God.

Brother Lawrence was a monk who took seriously the admonition to “pray without ceasing” (1 Thess 5:16), and endeavored to make communion with God a natural and continuous state of being. In The Practice of the Presence of God, he wrote, “There is not in the world a kind of life more sweet and delightful, than that of a continual conversation with God; those only can comprehend it who practice and experience it.” When he worked in the monastery kitchen, every menial task took on new meaning for him as an offering to God. Every moment of drudgery became more delightful when he experienced it as a conversation with God. Is it possible for us in our twenty-first century lives to have such a dedication to God? I think so.

I once visited a parishioner in her place of work. She toiled away at a sewing machine, in a room full of sewing machines, making blue jeans. It had all the marks of a sweatshop: musty smell, concrete floors, no windows, one (male) floor boss among a sea of women who would have retired years ago but for some misfortune they suffered earlier in life. When she saw me her eyes lit up, and she could not wait to show me the details of her job. She knew all the important things to look out for when double stitching the seams of blue jeans. It made me smile to see the obvious pride and joy she found in doing a simple thing well. Her enthusiasm transported her away from the dreary factory to a place of continual praise. That's worship! As we make that shift from worship as an event to worship as a lifestyle, our praise of God never ceases, but spills out into every facet of our lives.

To God be the Glory!

CHECK IT OUT !!

Often, books and/or authors surprise us...as in the recent "discovery" that David Jeremiah's wife, Donna, shares his writing prowess. Further "investigation" revealed that Donna and her co-author, Peggy Leslie, have indeed authored two works of fiction in their Partners in Crime series! Both books, Storm Over Colorado and Intrigue in Colorado await your checking them out. Oh, and by the way, wonderful author Jan Karon's latest book is here as well! Father Tim Kavanagh has been "retired" over 12 years now and the newest Mitford book, To Be Where You Are, takes readers from there! All three books are delightful and will be on the library table for a time.

CHECK THEM OUT !!

Please send your answered prayers by email to prayer@shalimar-umc.org. They will be sent by email to those signed up to receive the Prayer chain email. Please include your name and email address in case you need to be contacted for clarity.

Connect Notes

VIP or a Very Important Person is someone who gets the best treatment when they go somewhere. Someone like a movie star or the president. We roll out the red carpets and get our camera out for them.

What if we have Very Intentional Preparation (VIP) for those whom God is seeking and going to send to our church.

Read Luke 15:1-7.

- Why would a shepherd leave his 99 sheep to go looking for 1?
- How would you feel if you were in the 99 sheep?
- How would you feel if you were the 1?
- What can We do to make someone feel as important as the 1 who was lost?

Read Luke 15:8-10.

- Imagine the joy you would feel if you had found your lost coin?
- Who would you have called to tell the good news to?
- Who could we seek with the same determination to bring to church next week as the woman sought her coin?

Read Acts 8:29-39.

- How do you think Philip felt walking up to a stranger's carriage?
- How did God use Philip's obedience to interact with the eunuch?
- What can the story of Philip and the eunuch teach us today about seeking people to bring to God?

Act It Out

This week, ask God to show you, someone, you can personally invite to church next Sunday. Be bold like Philip. Seek them out with determination just as the woman sought her coin. Treat them as a VIP and prepare for them as a VIP.

February Meeting and Trip

Regular meeting and luncheon: Celebrate a Valentine's Day themed luncheon with us and prepare to be dazzled by the "Tap Dazzlers" dance group on Tuesday, February 13th. The Tap Dazzlers are under the direction of Kaci McCain who has taught tap dance for many years to children and adults. Valentine's Day is a celebration of love. What better way to show how much you care about your valentine than to stay healthy through dance! (Secret: Four of the dancers are church members - can you guess who??)

On WEDNESDAY, Feb. 21st, we travel to the FWB Gulfarium Marine Adventure Park where Seniors are only charged $7.00 that day (a $13 savings) to see the sea lion show, otter show, and dolphin show. SUMC departure is at 9:15 am. We'll dine for lunch at Fokker's Pub (eclectic menu with a great variety of German Food, wings, pizza, burgers, etc.) in FWB, returning at 1:30 pm. Sign up in the church office.

Please be sure to make note of these different (than the normal) days of the week events.

For additional information, please contact Ollie Fay Flint, 651-2360, Betty Stewart, 243-5551, or Jon & Kathie Sheperd, 651-8008.

Prayer Room

The Prayer Room is always available for your use. The code to enter is 4125. On Sunday mornings, after every service, someone will be in the Prayer Room to pray with you, if you would like. They will not bother you if you would like time to yourself. There are prayer shawls available for your use as well. A Prayer Box and Prayer Cards are available for you to leave a prayer request for the Pastors and/or Prayer Team to pray for you or a situation you would like lifted up. There have been great reports of use for this special place.

21st Annual Holly Fair Update

The 21st Annual Holly Fair was a very successful and well attended event this year. On behalf of all the committee members I would like to say a big thank you to all of our wonderful volunteers, vendors, prayer partners, bakers, cooks, and crafters. Thank you also to our Pastors and office staff who worked joyfully to assist us. Our youth took the role as photographers and they ran the kitchen this year; cooking and serving with a helpful spirit. Thanks to the Boy Scouts for their help setting up and taking down. Without our volunteers, the Holly Fair would not be the blessing it is to so many people in our community.

The funds this year went to support several church and community groups. The committee voted to commit the $10,239.63 raised to the following: Sharing and Caring, Safe Connections, Youth Village, Rhonda Coon Women's Home, Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Military Ministries, Blue Star Moms, Children's Playground, Church Office, Youth Ministry, and Worship Ministry.

Our volunteer numbers are dwindling and we welcome any new additions to our dedicated group of women, men, and youth. If you would like to join the Holly Fair and experience the joy of serving others please contact Kim Margold the church's Program Director.
