THROUGH THE Eyes OF MARK

Shalimar United Methodist Church
PO Box 7925 Shalimar, FL 32579

Welcome to Shalimar UMC

We are so glad you've chosen to worship with us this week! Hearing assistance devices are available for the Sanctuary. Please see an usher to obtain these aids. Enjoy fellowship, coffee, and snacks in the Family Life Center Gym between worship services.

Our Vision

Christ-centered, multigenerational, family and community relevant ministries through worship, discipleship, and mission.

Our Mission

REACH, TEACH, and SEND

We REACH out to our congregation, community, and the world to TEACH the word of God as provided in the Holy Scripture, and SEND our members and missionaries to be witnesses to God's grace and His promise of eternal life to us through the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

Worship Services

Break Free

Our Saturday evening service begins at 6:00pm in the Family Life Center. This transformational service involves modern music, multimedia, and a style of preaching that is practical and participatory.

Traditions

At 8:00 and 11:00am Sunday mornings in the Sanctuary we celebrate through the rich traditions of our faith such as hymns led by organ and piano, seasonal vestments, and traditional Methodist liturgy. Our Chancel Choir leads the 11:00am service.

Connect

At 9:30am Sunday mornings in the Sanctuary we engage in a four-fold service of gathering praise, service of the Word, Holy Communion with candle stations for prayer, and sending forth. The music is a blend of contemporary praise songs and upbeat hymns.

Freedom

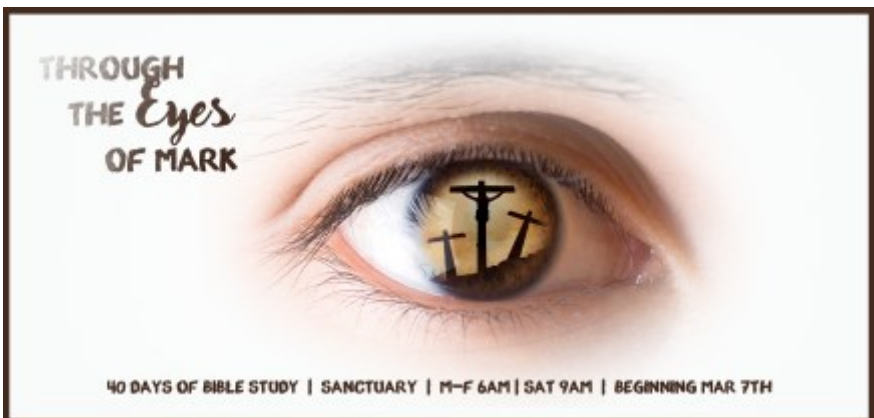

At 11:07am Sunday mornings in the Family Life Center Gym we worship through modern music, multimedia, and a teaching style message in a non-traditional atmosphere. We come to God as we are to experience the freedom of not having to stay that way.

Here's what you need to know this week.

Philip's Focus

What Does Not Living As a Disciple Cost Us?

We seek to make disciples through Shalimar United Methodist Church. Lent has begun and these forty days offer us a fresh opportunity to grow as disciples and make disciples of Jesus Christ. When we speak of growing as disciples, we may think only of what must be given up, but have we ever thought about what is lost by non-discipleship?

Dallas Willard, in his book The Great Omission, speaks convincingly about this when he writes “non-discipleship costs abiding peace, a life penetrated throughout by love, faith that sees everything in the light of God’s overriding governance for good, hopefulness that stands firm in the most discouraging of circumstances, power to do what is right and withstand the forces of evil. In short, non-discipleship costs you exactly that abundance of life Jesus said he came to bring (John 10:10). The cross shaped yoke of Christ is after all an instrument of liberation and power to those who live in it with him and learn the meekness and lowliness of heart that brings rest to the soul.”

Additionally, we can reference the fruits of the spirit found in Galatians 5:22 which include love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, gentleness, and faithfulness. If we live the opposite of these fruits and bring out the worst in everyone, how much do we lose? In the Kingdom view, when we live the fruits of the spirit how much good springs forth in everyone? We gain such abundant lives living as disciples and others gain from our joy as well!

As Lenten Season progresses, let us make the most of this opportunity to grow as disciples and make disciples. Let us consider the profound thoughts of the late Dallas Willard and let us consider all we lose when we choose non-discipleship and all we gain when we live as disciples!

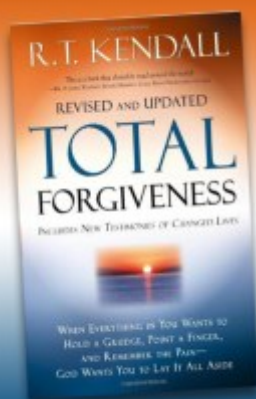

Shalom,
Philip

Is Methodism For Me?

The recent special called General Conference in St. Louis reaffirmed the United Methodist Church's historic stance on sexuality which is that the practice of homosexuality is incompatible with Christian teaching, self-avowed practicing homosexuals shall not serve as clergy, and same-sex unions are not sanctioned in our places of worship. On these matters, the Book of Discipline has not changed. What is new is the added language that calls for stricter adherence to the rules, closer agreement to church doctrine in the ordination process, and stronger consequences for those who defy church law. At the time of this writing, new provisions are under judicial review, but clearly the message from our deliberating body is that the church's position has not changed, and there will be less tolerance of defiance.

It may be fair to say the recent General Conference actions did not change anyone's mind but left many wondering if there is still room in the Methodist church for them. They struggle with this understanding of scripture in light of their own experience. By the wording of the discipline, it seems to them that the church focuses on homosexuality as a "practice," rather than a state of mind. By their own experience or that of their loved ones, they see our hetero- or homo- sexuality as an orientation of life that we do not choose and cannot help. Our Social Principles affirm that "...sexuality is God's good gift to all persons (§161 G, italics added)." If their sexual orientation is "God's good gift," they reason, does the enjoyment of that gift disqualify them from the blessings of marriage? Can God not call them into His service to preach the gospel and minister to others? Those who would ask these questions often feel pressure to keep such musings to themselves, but still it tugs on their hearts.

Our doctrinal heritage has been to let scripture be authoritative but informed by reason, experience, and tradition. Our tradition demands we "must each work out our own salvation with fear and trembling (Phil. 2:12)." So certainly the discussion around this topic will continue, and there is room at the table for everyone.

For those who question whether they can still remain in our church, I want to be a pastor you can talk to. I love you all, and I love being your pastor. Now is the time to "make every effort to keep the unity of the Spirit through the bond of peace" (Eph. 4:3).

Splash of Joy II

How Jesus Fully Satisfies the Cry of Your Heart

Jesus makes seven I AM statements in the Gospel of John and in this study Lysa will help us dive into each statement. Please join us as we seek a deeper understanding of Who Jesus is, a deeper relationship with the God of the Universe, and a greater awe for ALL He has done for us. Lysa filmed this study in the Holy Land so we will get to visit places Jesus walked, talked, healed, loved, prayed. We will begin on March 6, 2019 in room 207. The cost of the book is $16. We meet every Wednesday from 9:30-11:30 AM. This is not only a wonderful way to study God's work but also a wonderful opportunity to fellowship and share your prayer concerns and praises. Nursery care is available for free. To sign up, please contact Cathie Buckman at 613-6414 or cathiebuckman@gmail.com.
