THROUGH THE Eyes OF MARK

Shalimar United Methodist Church
PO Box 7925 Shalimar, FL 32579

Welcome to Shalimar UMC

We are so glad you've chosen to worship with us this week! Hearing assistance devices are available for the Sanctuary. Please see an usher to obtain these aids. Enjoy fellowship, coffee, and snacks in the Family Life Center Gym between worship services.

Our Vision

Christ-centered, multigenerational, family and community relevant ministries through worship, discipleship, and mission.

Our Mission

REACH, TEACH, and SEND

We REACH out to our congregation, community, and the world to TEACH the word of God as provided in the Holy Scripture, and SEND our members and missionaries to be witnesses to God's grace and His promise of eternal life to us through the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

Worship Services

Break Free

Our Saturday evening service begins at 6:00pm in the Family Life Center. This transformational service involves modern music, multimedia, and a style of preaching that is practical and participatory.

Traditions

At 8:00 and 11:00am Sunday mornings in the Sanctuary we celebrate through the rich traditions of our faith such as hymns led by organ and piano, seasonal vestments, and traditional Methodist liturgy. Our Chancel Choir leads the 11:00am service.

Connect

At 9:30am Sunday mornings in the Sanctuary we engage in a four-fold service of gathering praise, service of the Word, Holy Communion with candle stations for prayer, and sending forth. The music is a blend of contemporary praise songs and upbeat hymns.

Freedom

At 11:07am Sunday mornings in the Family Life Center Gym we worship through modern music, multimedia, and a teaching style message in a non-traditional atmosphere. We come to God as we are to experience the freedom of not having to stay that way.

Four Teachings from Mark

As most of you know, I am an Auburn fan. My dad graduated years ago when it was known as Alabama Polytechnical Institute. Karen and I have three daughters who also graduated from there, so it's fair to say we have pretty strong ties to Alabama. Needless to say we were quite excited when they won all their tournament games and made it to the Final Four! Auburn's basketball team has not played very well in years past, so it's exciting to behold this year's success. We hope they win two more games and take the National Championship!

As I was thinking about the Final Four, I wondered what would be the critical four teachings from the Gospel of Mark that we have studied during these 40 days of Lent.

"The time has come, the Kingdom is near, repent and believe the Good news!" (Mark 1:15) This verse compels me not to wait but to act now.

"Why are you afraid? Where is your faith?" (Mark 4:40) Jesus rebuked the wind and waves and taught his disciples about faith. I have especially heard this teaching anew as we have weathered many storms over the past year with the hurricane, tornadoes, flooding events, and personal storms. The words of Jesus have helped me to answer questions about my own faith and fears.

"How many loaves do you have?" (Mark 6:38) The disciples thought it would be impossible to feed 5,000 people but Jesus simply asked "How many loaves do you have?" I hear this passage calling me to offer to the Lord all I have and to grow in my faith so that I may participate in His Kingdom work. I'm reminded not to make excuses of what I lack but rather offer what I can to God fully each day.

"Watch out for the yeast of the Pharisees and that of Herod." (Mark 8:15) Yeast in bread is like a person's character which influences and is hidden. This influence can be used to work for Kingdom purposes or to undo them. As I read this, I question how I'm using my own Kingdom influence. Be aware of the often subtle presence of evil beneath the surface that is seeking to undo the higher Kingdom purposes.

My hope is that the Gospel of Mark means as much to you as it does to me. What verses have caught your attention? I look forward to the conclusion of this study! And now we head toward Palm Sunday and Holy Week to include Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, Holy Saturday, and the Resurrection!

Shalom,
Philip

Feed the Need

Feed the Need was a great success and there are two more to come! Last Saturday, on March 30th, Shalimar UMC, along with many other religious and civic groups in Okaloosa County, completed the annual Feed the Need food packing event. With the United Way sponsoring and Gregg Chapel AME church hosting, people came and worked in four shifts to pack and distribute meal kits to fight hunger and malnutrition in our county. The result was a huge success. They packed over 100,000 meals distributing them to eight different food pantries the same day. Our own Ken Winzeler, who volunteers with Sharing and Caring, brought many people to work a shift while Brad Bradford brought members of the Youth Choir to work another. Altogether, around 50 people from SUMC helped out.

It amazes me and I am always proud to see the enthusiasm our church people show when it comes to serving the poor. Whenever we have a community event of this nature, people know when Shalimar UMC has arrived! Many thanks go to Brad and Ken for their leadership and compassion.

We will soon have two other opportunities to show our love. On Easter Sunday, we will send a team once again to Lynn Haven UMC in Panama City to provide dinner on the grounds. You may recall that we served Thanksgiving dinner to hundreds of people displaced after Hurricane Michael devastated the area. For Easter, they are expecting a much larger showing. The cost of food is covered and the crown will be fed by none other than Chef Heyward! If you would like to spend Easter morning celebrating the resurrection and serving these grateful folks, please contact the church office.

Sunday, April 28th, is Faith in Action Day. We will send teams all over the area to show what it means to worship God by serving others. Many have already signed up for projects we have organized, but there is always room for more. We want everyone in the church to sign up! We have work for people of all ages and all levels of physical ability. Please come by the sign-up table in the FLC to register. That day, our work will be worship, and our worship will be work!

We have so much to be grateful for, and God has given us so many opportunities to show our love and gratitude. Thank you, Shalimar UMC, for being the hands and feet of Jesus!
